fuck the police

Lets stop robbing each other, shooting each other and beating each other - the police and the rich do that for us. Let's stick together, take care of each other, and fight back against our real enemies.

-Because when we loot, riot and steal we take back the things that we deserve

-Because they've fucked our great grandparents, our grandparents, our parents, and now us.

Because another world is possible when the cops get out of our way

Why Fuck the Police?

- Because everything sucks and the police keep it that way.
- For protecting capitalism, which makes our lives terrible.
- For protecting the rich!
- For protecting and enforcing a violent economic and social order that makes it impossible to make a living and puts you in jail for making a living the only way you can.
- For protecting an economic and social order that pits us against each other when we should really be fighting the cops and the rich.

- For protecting and enforcing a violent economic order that needs undocumented labor, but terrorizes and criminalizes undocumented workers.
- For setting up DUI check points in Latino neighborhoods for the purpose of catching and deporting undocumented people.
- For tearing apart families with your bullshit ICE raids.
- For bashing trans people and queers, and for protecting and enforcing a social order that makes queers encounter violence every fucking day.
- For protecting and enforcing a social order that makes us be "boys" and "girls" even when we don't fit those categories.

From the Oscar Grant riots to Occupy Oakland, from the people's revolution in Egypt to the insurrection in Greece, people all over the world are fighting back against the police and against the fucked up economic system called capitalism, which is destroying our lives and our world.

FIGHT BACK ALL DAY EVERY DAY. REVOLT. RIOT. STRIKE. BURN SHIT. ROB THE COPS AND THE RICH. LETS TAKE BACK WHAT WE NEED AND BUILD A WORLD WHERE NO ONE is in NEED

Why we fight back:

- Because it feels good
- Because we are stronger together.
- Because they can't arrest us all.
- Because this shit is fucking bullshit.
- Because we have the power to destroy this system and build a better one without the police.
- Because we're still alive, and we want to survive
- Because we have no other option.
- Because we're not going to sit here complacently and watch them fuck us over.
- Because we can win!!

- For letting transwoman Brandy Martell bleed to death in the street because you didn't give a shit.
- For shooting black and brown people in the streets every day.
- For being slave catchers
- Because this country was built on enslaved Black labor, yet Black people are denied anything worthwhile that this country could provide.
- For committing genocide against America's indigenous people, erasing them from your history books, taking away their land, forcing them on to shitty reservations, co-opting their culture and selling it back to them in Disney movies and hipster fashion.

- For pretending you're the savior of women, while beating, raping, terrorizing, and incarcerating women.
- For fucking sex workers and then arresting them.
- For using our children as leverage against us.
- For making our lives miserable every fucking day.
- Because they're nasty ass pigs and we hate them.
- For protecting empty buildings while people sleep on the streets.
- For oppressing poor people of color and crushing poor people's rebellions.
- For stomping on our dreams for a world worth living in
- Because all cops are bastards!

ACAB

Alan Bleuford, Treyvon Martin, Lovelle Mixon, Kenneth Harding, Oscar Grant

THESE ARE NOT ISOLATED INCIDENCES.

The police brutalize, terrorize, incarcerate poor people, people of color, drug dealers, sex workers, undocumented people, people that speak out against this economic and social order.

THE POLICE EXIST TO PROTECT CAPITALISM AND THE RICH. THEY DON'T GIVE A FUCK ABOUT YOU.
FUCK THE POLICE. REVOLT!
